ontest had assumed much factional bitterness in the county and had come into much prominence over the State because of the support given to former Senator Keczell by Henry C. Stuart, who made an address in his behalf at Harrisonburg. While in the Senate, Mr Keezell was chairman of the Finance Committee, and secured for ris district a State Normal School. Factional differences growing out of a recent contest for the treasurership of Rockingham County had much to do with his defeat. The county sends back to the House the former delegation, Dr. C. H.
